

UEFA ANTI-DOPING PROGRAMME

Doping control data – information for players

Players' rights and responsibilities

Following notification that they must undergo a doping control, a player has the following rights and responsibilities:

Rights

The player has a right to:

1. Have a representative present;
2. Request additional information about the doping control process;
3. If the player has an impairment, they have the right to request a modification to the sample collection procedure.

Responsibilities

The player has a responsibility to:

1. Report immediately for sample collection;
2. Remain in constant view of the DCO or chaperone from the moment of notification until the completion of the sample collection procedure;
3. Provide a valid photo ID;
4. Comply with sample collection procedures and follow any instructions given by the DCO.

Doping control form

During the doping control, the following information is recorded on either a paper or digital doping control form:

- The name of the player;
- The date of birth of the player;
- The gender of the player;
- The type of test (in-competition or out-of-competition);
- Date, time and type of notification (no advance notice or advance notice);
- Arrival time at the Doping Control Station;
- Any medications, for example Beta-2 Agonists or Glucocorticosteroids, and/or supplements taken within the previous seven days, and blood transfusions within the previous three months, as declared by the player;
- The type of sample collected (urine, blood, etc);
- Partial sample information;
- The sample code number;
- Date and time that each sample is sealed;
- Required laboratory information on the sample (i.e., for a urine sample, its volume and specific gravity);
- The player's consent or otherwise for the use of the sample(s) for research purposes;
- Any irregularities in procedures;
- Any comments or concerns regarding the conduct of the sample collection session, as declared by the player;
- The name and signature of the Doping Control Officer;
- The name and signature of the Blood Collection Officer (if applicable);

- The name and signature of the player's representative (if applicable);
  - The place where the doping control happened;
  - Date and time of the completion of the entire sample collection process;
  - The player's consent for the processing of sample collection data;
  - The signature of the player;

In addition, the following information about the doping control is known by UEFA and may also be provided to WADA:

- The player's sport and discipline;
- The UEFA competition for which the player is registered;
- If applicable, the teams involved in the match;
- The name of the player's coach;
- The name of the player's doctor;
- The club or national association's contact details;

Player's consent

Upon signing the doping control form, the player is asked to acknowledge and agree to the following (the player will always be able to see a copy of this consent form at the moment of signing the form):

Doping control-related data

I am being asked to acknowledge that I know and adhere to UEFA's Anti-Doping Regulations, the World Anti-Doping Code (the "Code") and the International Standards issued by the World Anti-Doping Agency ("WADA"), as amended from time to time, and that I undertake to abide by them. I am being asked to read the following form to ensure that I am aware that my doping control related data will be used in anti-doping programmes for detection, deterrence and prevention of doping. Signing this form will indicate that I have been so informed and that I give my express consent to such processing.

I understand and agree that:

- My doping control-related data will be used in the context of anti-doping programmes and as described in more detail in the Athlete Information Notice, which is subject to change without notice, as found on uefa.com and on the WADA website;
- My doping control-related data will be collected by UEFA, which shall be principally responsible for ensuring the protection of my data, and which is committed to complying with the International Standard for the Protection of Privacy and Personal Information;
- UEFA will use the ADAMS data-management system or any other reliable means (e.g. email) to process and manage my doping control-related data, and disclose it to authorised recipients, (for instance, designated National Anti-Doping Organisations, FIFA or Football Associations, major games organizers (e.g. IOC for "Olympic Games"), and WADA). WADA-accredited laboratories will also use ADAMS or any other reliable means (e.g. fax) to process my laboratory test results, but shall only have access to de-identified, key-coded data that will not disclose my identity;
- Persons or parties receiving my information may be located outside the country where I reside, including in Switzerland and Canada. In some other countries, data protection and privacy laws may not be equivalent to those in my own country;

- Pursuant to the International Standard referenced above and under applicable law I have certain rights in relation to my doping control-related data, including rights to access and/or correct any inaccurate data or by contacting UEFA (antidoping@uefa.ch); and
  - To the extent that I have any concerns about the processing of my doping control-related data I may consult with UEFA and/or WADA (www.wada-ama.org), as appropriate.

Release

I hereby release UEFA, WADA, as well as anti-doping organisations and accredited laboratories from all claims, demands, liabilities, damages, costs and expenses that I may have arising in connection with the processing of my doping control-related data through ADAMS or any other reliable means.

Withdrawal of consent

I understand that my participation in UEFA competitions is contingent upon my voluntary participation in anti-doping procedures set forth in the UEFA Anti-Doping Regulations and the World Anti-Doping Code (hereafter "the Code") and thus the processing of my doping control-related data as described in this form, and in the Athlete Information Notice, as found on uefa.com and the WADA website.

I understand that the withdrawal of my consent to the processing of my doping control-related data will be construed as a refusal to participate in those anti-doping procedures mandated by the UEFA Anti-Doping Regulations and the Code and could exclude me from further participation in UEFA matches / competitions and may result in disciplinary or other sanctions being imposed upon me, such as disqualification from matches and/or competitions in which I am scheduled to participate.

Authorisation and consent

By signing this form, I hereby declare that I am familiar with and agree to abide by UEFA's Anti-Doping Regulations, Disciplinary Regulations and the WADA Code, and that I expressly consent to the processing of my doping control-related data as set forth above and in the Athlete Information Notice.
